CATCHING CAMP:

PITCHING CAMP:

WHAT ABOUT CAMP IN 2012?

This year we are continuing a camp for 7 year olds which will focus on skills, learning the game in “game situations”, throwing properly, swinging the bat correctly and fielding different positions.

This group will be separated from the 8 and 9 year olds and will be divided equally for skill development and team play. It will focus less on competition and more on the development of skill and confidence.

After much success, we continue to use a radar gun in the pitching camp. Each pitcher will be “gunned” and a mph rating recorded. This will take place Wednesday and / or Friday to ensure that each pitcher gets timed.

OUR APPROACH TO CAMP

First, we want the camp to be fun and personally rewarding. (Baseball “trivia” questions, “one pitch” innings, geared to entice learning.)

Second, we want each camper to receive an abundance of positive reinforcement. Each year we give away approximately 10,000 baseball cards as a means of rewarding knowledge, good decisions, extra effort or proper execution of a skill. We never let campers pitch to campers; our coaches always pitch to campers; our coaches always pitch to ensure that strikes are thrown – this develops confidence on the part of the hitter and players in the field.

Third, we want each camper to learn more about a skill and more about the game itself. This camp emphasizes learning in the context of playing the game: skills lead to a “scrimmage” where those same skills are applied daily.
